

The FRED'S FOLLY OUTER SUBURBAGINE
Saturday 13th September 2008

PRELIMINARY INFORMATION

Hash House

To be advised in further information.

Time Schedule

13.00 pm - Maps handed out

14.45 pm - Drivers briefing,

15.00 pm - Start

18.00 pm - Chows on

21.00 pm - Finish

21.30 pm - results

22.00 - Chow finishes (maybe)

The Course

Typical outer Darwin suburbia with about 30% intermingled bush/scrub.

Controls

Controls visited will be recorded by multi choice answers with some traditional rogaine controls in bush areas

A wrong answer on the multi choice controls will result in losing double the point value of that control.

Water

There will be 4 water drops on the course but each team member is advised to carry three (3) litres of water or whatever sports supplement they prefer.

Bring

Good walking shoes, energy food, contact for maps, a quantity of sharp pencils, first aid kit, scissors, headlight and/or good torch, spare batteries, rain resistant clothing in case of, towel, spare tubes/puncture repair kit, money, chairs and camping table for course planning and contacting, highlighters of assorted colours, good sense of humour.

Astronomical

Sunset - 1843

Moonrise - 1604

End civil twilight -1929 - 96.2% of moon's disc illuminated

Nosh

Tucker will be on from 18.00 till 22.00 (maybe later, depending on appetites)

Freds Folly Metrogaine

Menu - Hamburgers, vegie burgers, snags, salad, fruit, moist carrot (or similar) cake, tea & coffee and Adam's ale.

Prizes

There will be trophies for 1st outright and spot prizes after the announcement of results. There will also be a door prize (probably off an old Camry or something similar).

EVENT SECRETARY: Christine Marron (0402222932) christinemc4@aapt.net.au

Please contact me if you require any information about the course, the event, beginners packs or if volunteering your help.

Only the setter, vetter and caterer can't compete...the rest of you mob can help set up and compete, which is the best of both worlds!